

Collaborative for High Performance Schools (CHPS)

The Collaborative for High Performance Schools (CHPS, pronounced "chips") is a national non-profit organization that facilitates the design, construction and operation of green, healthy, high performance schools. CHPS administers a variety of programs to promote "greener", sustainable, more efficient and healthier schools. CHPS is seeking an intern to assist in these activities. The intern will be engaged in a variety of communications, outreach and event-planning activities to support the CHPS program and will gain knowledge of the internal functioning of an environmental non-profit organization. All positions are based at the CHPS office in San Francisco, CA.

Intern Position: Communications Programs Intern

Duties and Responsibilities:

The intern will be a member of the CHPS Team and will perform duties under the CHPS Communications and Events Coordinators, including (but not limited to) the following activities:

- Support management of general communications and outreach efforts including development of collateral and maintenance of website content.
- Support the growth of national membership program through outreach campaigns.
- Assist with coordination and promotion of educational events and trainings.
- Assist in the publishing of CHPS monthly newsletter including writing and editing articles.
- Provide excellent customer service, including answering telephone and email inquiries.
- Perform other support activities as needed, including project coordination assistance, internet research and administrative work.

Education, Experience and Skills Required:

- Undergraduate enrolled in a four-year college degree program; preferably a Junior or Senior with background in marketing, communications, public relations, environmental science or studies or other related field.
- Strong interest and enthusiasm for environmental or green building issues, or children's health and education.
- Self-motivated, reliable and organized, with excellent oral and written communication skills.
- Experience performing similar duties and responsibilities as outlined above a plus, but not required.
- Knowledge of and experience with green building / sustainable practices a plus, but not required.
- Required: candidate must bring their own laptop computer for use during the internship.

Time Commitment:

The internship will be at the CHPS office in downtown San Francisco (near the Montgomery BART Station). Candidates who can commit to a three-month long post (or longer) are preferred. Intern must commit to at least eight (8) hours a week, up to full-time. We are flexible on the days of the week. Candidates with more time availability will be given priority. A stipend may be available. Position to start immediately.
